

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.
More importantly, it
is a partisan misuse
of the license to use the public
airways.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free
of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The FCC
and the Election Commission are obligated to enforce the laws and
prohibit ANY station
from abusing its
privilege.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
